Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary Parishes are a community of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in cooperation with the Bishop of Thunder Bay, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God.

Jesus said to his disciples: "There will be signs in the sun and moon and stars; on earth nations in agony, bewildered by the clamour of the ocean and its waves; men dying of fear as they await what menaces the world, for the powers of heaven will be shaken.

And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

When these things begin to take place, stand erect, hold your heads high, because your liberation is near at hand.

Watch yourselves, or your hearts will be coarsened with debauchery and drunkenness and the cares of life, and that day will be sprung on you suddenly, like a trap.

For it will come down on every living man on the face of the earth.

Stay awake, praying at all times for the strength to survive all that is going to happen, and to stand with confidence before the

DO NOT WALK ALONE. Walking is an art; if we are always in a hurry, we tire and cannot reach our destination, the destination of our journey. Yet if we stop and do not move, we also fail to reach our destination. Walking is precisely the art of looking to the horizon, thinking about where I want to go, and also coping with the weariness that comes from walking. Moreover, the way is often hard going; it is not easy. "I want to stay faithful to this journey, but it is not easy:listen, there is darkness; there are days of darkness, days of failure, and some days of falling... someone falls, falls. "Yet always keep this in your thoughts: do not be afraid of failure, do not be afraid of falling. In the art of walking, it is not falling that matters, but not "staying fallen." Get up quickly, immediately, and continue to go on... But also, it is terrible to walk alone, terrible and tedious. Walking in community, with friends, with those who love us; this helps us; it helps us to arrive precisely at the destination where we must arrive.

I'M CATHOLIC - THEOLOGY FOR THE COMMON

MAN. 1 - Is Catholicism a religion of suffering?

4. How it is related to us? We have to speak about the cross of Jesus Christ in the widest salvific framework encompassing the whole of humankind; including the present generation in the present century. We find the confirmation of this universal salvific statement in the posture of Jesus Christ as is shown in the Gospels and in the Letters of Apostles and in the prophecies. They all indicate the clear intention of God that Jesus should die for everybody, no matter what century or geographical place. This is shown also in the rapid spread of primitive Christianity throughout the whole the world. All these reasons ask us to see in the cross of Jesus Christ a form of the unique salvific medium of God's love toward each man related to the worst physical, psychic, and spiritual suffering focused precisely in the cross. From the above we can draw the conclusion that we cannot see in the Roman and Jewish authorities only the responsibility for the death of the Son of God. Today's centers of the world reveal similar or even more sophisticated forms of acting. In this context it is worthwhile to consider the role of each of us in the event that Jesus would have to come to die today. Surely Jesus also would find the most adequate medium of salvific suffering to show how much God loves men and women. But, salvation has already been accomplished in history and there is already the cross that has become the most representative form of suffering chosen by God, through which the suffering of each of us finds its full dimension and the most certain medium of the return to the prime love of God.
