God our Father bless us!

When all the people asked John, “What must we do?” he answered, “If anyone has two tunics he must share with the man who has none, and the one who has something to eat must do the same.” There were tax collectors too who came for baptism, and these said to him, “Master, what must we do?” He said to them, “Exact no more than your rate.” As well as this, there were many other things he said to exhort the people and announce the Good News to them.

JESUS WANTS US FREE. Jesus does not want selfish Christians who follow their own ego, who do not talk to God. Nor does he want weak Christian, Christians who have no will of their own, "remote-controlled." Christians incapable of creativity, who always seek to connect with the will of someone else and are not free. Jesus wants us free. And where is this freedom created? It is created in dialogue with God in the person's own conscience. If a Christian is unable to speak with God, if he cannot hear God in his own conscience, he is not free; he is not free

I'M CATHOLIC - THEOLOGY FOR THE COMMON

MAN. 1.-Catholic Teaching on Ecology. The last ecological catastrophe surrounding the oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico off the Atlantic (Fall 2010) bids us question not so much the sense of the extraction of oil from sea and ocean, but rather the deeper and more fundamental concerns regarding the treatment of the environment by man. From such unacceptable management arose the ecological movement and numerous international organizations were formed having the task of stemming the destructive activities of that species called homo sapiens. This movement, however, is dependent on change in the mental attitude of contemporary man, who from his position of respect for nature in its original state began to exploit and destroy it. In a way, it is involved in the world's departure from the Christian philosophy of life which owned God as the Creator of all that exists, thanks to Whom, creation itself takes on value and respect. Although the theological and ecological roads diverged, the church did not discontinue its efforts toward protection of the environment and through its teaching it exhibits the hazardous tendencies that have crept in, suggesting alternative and humanistic rectification. Closely consider the position of the Catholic Church in light of the challenges of modern society.

JUSTICE, PEACE & INTEGRITY OF CREATION A PRAYER BASED ON THE LAUDATO SI ACTION GOALS:

Creator, God, we pray for our parishes and dioceses, that they may be attentive to the CRY OF THE EARTH and promote clean energy, ensure clean air and water for all, protect your creation, and its biodiversity, and climate, in particular. May we rediscover our original vocation as carers of our common home and of one another. AMEN

Come, Lord Jesus, child of the earth, child of God. Come into our world of joy and sorrow. Stay with us always, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

If you don't feel ready to come to Church, access this latest online Mass celebrated by Bishop Colli or scroll down to the bottom of this page for other Masses that are streamed online.
