Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary Parishes are a community of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in cooperation with the Bishop of Thunder Bay, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God.

Jesus was led by the Spirit out into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. Like all who see their lives as a grateful response to God's call, Jesus must make the basic choice to trust God, whatever the circumstances he finds himself in. In this story, under very great pressure, Jesus makes his choice. Who does he remind you of at this moment of decision?

The story is told as a journey in three stages: Identify the wilderness into which you – or someone you know, or your community – have been led by the Spirit. Note that it is the Spirit – God's love – who leads him there. What does that say about true love? Deuteronomy 8:1-5 will help you to answer this question. Ask yourself also, do we sometimes go into the wilderness but not led there by the Spirit? What happens then? The three temptations are three aspects of the one temptation not to trust God, or (stated in positive terms) to follow the way of achievement rather than that of trust.

Repeat Jesus' three responses to yourself many times until you can identify with them. From that perspective you will understand the temptations. Thank God for the great people who continue to respond like Jesus. How is Satan tempting them? How is Satan tempting the Church? This is the moment when an individual (or a community) who has remained faithful through a long temptation experiences the love and care of God for that person (or cause) to whom he or she has been faithful. Who are the angels God sends to look after his faithful ones?

"Walk the dark ways of faith and you will attain the vision of God." ... St Augustine

Our hope is safe and sound. The Risen Lord is the hope that never fails, that never disappoints. Hope does not let us down—the hope of the Lord! How often in our life do hopes vanish; how often do the expectations we have in our hearts come to nothing! Our hope as Christians is strong, safe, and sound on this earth where God has called us to walk, and it is open to eternity because it is founded on God who is always faithful. We must not forget. God is always faithful to us. Being raised with Christ through Baptism, with the gift of faith, an inheritance that is incorruptible, prompts us to seek god's things more often, to think of him more often and to pray to him more.

Pray

Lord, it is risky to let ourselves be led by the Spirit.

So often he leads us into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. We make an act of trust in you today, letting ourselves be guided by you, confident that the devil will eventually leave us and angels will appear to look after us.

Lord, sometimes we go into the wilderness because we are hurt or angry or resentful of others. Teach us that we are only safe in the wilderness if the Spirit leads us there.

“Understanding can follow only where experience leads.” ...St Bernard

We pray for parents and all those who guide others; help them to be like you: – not to be over-protective; – to let their sons and daughters be led by the Spirit into the wilderness, because it is only there that they will experience angels appearing and looking after them.

Lord, we think of all those who are in the wilderness at this moment, those who have been there forty days and forty nights without eating and are very hungry – hungry for love, for security, for recognition, for ordinary food. The tempter has certainly come and said to them that they can turn the stones before them into loaves. We pray that they may reply in the words of Scripture, that we do not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from your mouth.

We pray for the youth of today. They see the kingdoms of the world and their splendour; but to be given all these they must fall at the feet of the devil and worship him. We pray that they may repeat the words of scripture worshipping you, the Lord their God, and serving you alone.

“The heart of the Christian message is that the most salvific moment in the history of the world was when one man was pinned to a cross, unable to do anything for anyone about anything.” ...Thomas Cullinane, Benedictine monk
