Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary Parishes are a community of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in cooperation with the Bishop of Thunder Bay, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God.

John Evangelist stresses that the disciples only understood the events in the temple after the events of Easter, when they knew in faith that Jesus was risen, but he was no longer with them. Thus his congregation — or we today for that matter — are not in ‘second position’ compared with those who saw Jesus in the flesh: Jesus is only really known by those who celebrate his death and resurrection. This activity of celebrating the death and resurrection, whether for the community in AD 100 or today, is the sharing of his body as real food and his blood as real drink (see Jn 6:55) in the Eucharist.

Lord, there are so many temples that people are turning into market places today: – children are a sacred trust, but we project our own ambitions and our hurts on them; – our relationship with our spouse we turn into a battlefield where we make sure to occupy the higher ground; – we enter into friendships to get advantages for ourselves; – the land we see as a source of easy profit; – the human body we treat as an object of competitions; – a church community becomes a place for prestige and power. We thank you for the times you sent Jesus into those temples; he made a whip out of some cord and drove us out, scattering our coins and knocking our counting tables over. We were angry, hurt and confused, but looking back we now recognise that it was zeal for your house which devoured you.

Bible Study will be starting on Monday at Roma Dupuis house at 4 Riverview St. from 6:30 - 7:30 p.m. We will be discussing Mathew Kelly's new book "Perfectly Yourself. Please pick up a copy at the back of the church and come out for some great discussion and fellowship. Everyone is welcome!

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY.

We can support one another, and face every kind of challenge with courage and hope, when we draw our strength from Jesus.

We are all called to live the joy that comes from the encounter with Jesus, to overcome our selfishness, and to move beyond our comfort zone. If we want a future of prosperity for all, we need to keep our compass pointing toward "true North", in the direction of authentic values. Let us invoke the gift of peace for the whole world, especially for those people who are suffering most because of ongoing conflicts.

3. Jesus is also the one who, from the perspective of his followers, transcends the temple, and so is in discontinuity with it. The new meeting place between humanity and God is not a building made by human hands with stones, metal, wood, but the living body of Jesus Christ who relates to us in his being a human being and who relates to the Father in his being the Son. Because his living body is the link that reconciles us to the Father, Jesus is the new temple and the final High Priest who connects us, God's people, with God. His risen body is at once with us when we gather in his name, and radiant in the Father's house.

4. Jesus inherits, perfects, and transforms the whole history of Israel, he endorses the covenant made by God in 'the law and the prophets', yet at the same time he stands in judgement over them and establishes in his death and resurrection the new covenant. It is this paradox of continuity and discontinuity that stands behind many phrases used in modern studies of Jesus, such as 'Jesus — a marginal Jew.' This paradox of continuity / discontinuity would have been felt more deeply by an early community than it is felt by us today.
