Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary Parishes are a community of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in cooperation with the Bishop of Thunder Bay, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God.

Lord, we remember today those who are taking an important new step in their lives: – getting married or becoming parents; – taking public office; – committing themselves to a new form of service. Give them the courage to risk losing themselves, for it is only then that they will find their true selves.

Lord, we thank you that in many countries of the world your Church has made an option for the poor, – preferring them to father and mother, son and daughter – risking everything for the sake of the gospel. It has lost many of its privileges but has found life as the Church of Jesus. “When I walk with Jesus, he always leads me to the poorest, the lowliest, and the lost so that I may open my heart to them.” ...Jean Vanier.

Lord, many leaders today, even in the Church, are concerned only for the important members of the community, for their friends or for those who can help them. We thank you for Jesus and all like him, men and women who feel deeply for the little ones in the community, and are grateful to those who give as much as a cup of cold water to them. “The more faithfully you listen to the voice within you, the better you will listen to what is sounding outside.” ...Dag Hammarskjöld.

Lord, we thank you for the holy men and women, the prophets you send into our lives. How true it is that when we welcome them we share in their greatness. Lord, we thank you for sending us into the world as parents, teachers, community leaders, ministers in your church.

"Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen."

The Church exists to Evangelize. In the Creed, immediately after professing our faith in the Holy Spirit, we say, "I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church." There is a profound connection between these two realities of faith: indeed, it is the Holy Spirit who gives life to the Church, who guides her steps. Without the constant presence and action of the Holy Spirit, the Church could not live and could not carry out the task that the Risen Jesus entrusted to her: to go and make disciples of all nations. Evangelizing is the Church's mission. It is not the mission of only a few, but it is mine, yours, and our mission. The apostle Paul exclaimed. "Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!" we must all be evangelizers, especially with our life! Paul VI stressed that "evangelizing is... the grace and vocation proper to the Church, her deepest identity. She exists in order to evangelize.

Welcome! Welcome to this assembly of the baptized who have gathered to give thanks to our Father in heaven. 'Welcome': it is such a simple word, and one we use freely and often with little thought. We welcome friends and guests to our homes; from time to time we welcome visitors; we talk about giving and receiving warm welcomes; and we sometimes have little plaques near our front door with 'Welcome' written on them or even have it bound into the weave of the front door mat.

Because we have been baptized into Jesus the Christ, we have been welcomed by the Father as his daughters and sons. Because we are disciples we are welcomed now to the Lord's table. Because we are followers of the Way we look forward to being welcomed to the banquet of heaven. We can thank the Father that we are a welcomed people.

But do we always welcome the Christ in his teachings in our lives? Do we always welcome the Christ in the stranger? Do we always welcome the Christ in the poor? Do we always welcome the Christ in those in need in our society?
