Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary Parishes are a community of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in cooperation with the Bishop of Thunder Bay, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God.

A good test of how strong our faith is would be how much we want to share it with the people around us. We cannot keep for ourselves what is good and rich and beautiful. If the gospel has shaped our lives and made it deep and precious for us, why not let it become Good News also to others? Not everyone is called to go out and preach it but just to let it speak for itself by the way we live it. Ask the Lord in this Eucharist to help us live and spread his Good News.

Ordinary people like you and me went out into the world with the message of Jesus, with nothing else to offer than the Good News, and yet the gospel spread far and wide. In the early centuries after Jesus' coming most of the converts were won over by seeing how the Christians lived, how they worshipped God and loved and served one another. In that way they lived and preached the heart of the gospel message. Is it perhaps this simplicity and directness which we need in our day? With the Lord Jesus among us, we ask him how best to make his Good News known. We assemble as a people who have been called to be bearers of God's love to all humanity. Each of us is called to be a witness to God's presence in the world in some unique way in some unique part of the creation. Each of us has been sent out by the Christ to proclaim good news, announce forgiveness, and to build the kingdom of peace. This is the reality of vocation. And thinking about and celebrating our individual vocations is something we are going to do today.

Go now you are sent forth, To live what you proclaim; To show the world you follow Christ In fact, not just in name.

Go now, you are sent forth To walk the troubled earth. To share your faith with all you meet and prove your real worth.

Go now, you are sent forth As God's ambassador; By serving Christ in those we meet We love him more and more.

Go now, you are sent forth And Christ goes with you, too. Today you help his kingdom come In everything you do.

Europe rediscovers hope when the human person is at the heart of its institutions. St Benedict, pray for us!

You too are like the Good Samaritan when you recognize the face of Christ in those near you.

Every occasion is a good one to spread Christ's message!

May all humanity hear the cry of the children of the Middle East.

Drying their tears the world will get back it's dignity.

The suffering of so many of our brothers and sisters, persecuted for the sake of the Gospel, is an urgent reminder that we Christians must be more united.

We receive God's graces to share them with others.

UPDATING OUR CENSUS: If you are new to our parish or have moved, please contact the office to update your information.

Jesus began to send them out in pairs. This was an important aspect of their mission – they must work together.

But for Jesus the truth of his message was the most important thing.

This is why, when he summoned the Twelve and sent them out, giving them authority over unclean spirits, he instructed them to take nothing for the journey

– no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses; they must wear sandals and not take a spare tunic.

Lord, help us to enter into the mind of Jesus.

Lord, forgive us that we think we can do your work alone, forgetting that we are all in need:

– men and women must complement each other;
– while each of us has gifts, we also have defects that others must make up for;

– those who disagree with us bring a new dimension to our ideas;
– our church needs the gifts of other churches.

Remind us that unless we are sent out in pairs

we will not have authority over the unclean spirits of our society.
