Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary Parishes are a community of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in cooperation with the Bishop of Thunder Bay, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God.

Today's passage, like those of the last two Sundays, is an account of the ministry of Jesus and contains several messages that are important for us today. We can feel free to identify with one of the three characters in the story:

- Jesus; - the apostles; - the crowds.

Jesus highlights the contrast between two aspects of teaching:

- "what we do; - "what we teach".

These are two distinct realities and in our teaching we should reflect on both. We need to share how we feel about things - within ourselves, with one another, and finally with our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Jesus makes another distinction, this time between - our "teaching";- our "going away to a lonely place" so that we can "rest for a while".

This "resting" would include what we do on our own. These are the times when we know that no one is there to look after us or to see that we do nothing wrong. We all have to take time off for rest.

The desire to be in the presence of the Lord and to listen to his teaching is what draws us together each time we assemble as a church — just as we are doing now. Today we hear of early groups of people who also had the desire to be with Jesus and how he took pity on them 'because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length'. Let us set the tone for our celebration by thinking about our need to listen to the teachings of Jesus so that they can bring light into our lives

Jesus invites us to build the civilization of love together in the situations we are called to live every day.

May the Virgin Mary, Mother and Queen of Carmel, accompany you on your daily journey towards the Mountain of God.

Try reading the Gospel for at least five minutes every day. You will see how it changes your life.

You too are like the Good Samaritan when you recognize the face of Christ in those near you. Every occasion is a good one to spread Christ's message!

The suffering of so many of our brothers and sisters, persecuted for the sake of the Gospel, is an urgent reminder that we Christians must be more united.

This recognition is rarely a blinding flash of understanding that there is a ‘God-shaped aperture’ in our existence, rather it is, more often than not, a painful discovery that we would almost be glad to avoid. Yet in this discovery we need also to appreciate the wisdom who teaches us — here lies the mission of Jesus the prophet and teacher. He teaches us to become aware of the deeper needs of our humanity: to see ourselves as the Father’s children, to work together to build the kingdom, and the need to journey through life towards our true home. Jesus both teaches us of our fundamental dependency on God, and of the love that God constantly offers us.

“God loves us too much to allow us to be satisfied and contented with mere images or signs of his presence.” Lord, prayer is that moment in our lives when we come into your presence to tell you all we have done and taught.

Reflection

It is a sad reflection on two thousand years of Christianity that there are still so many divisions

However, this is something that we merely wish for or give approval to. Being reconciled to those from whom we are estranged can be very difficult. Wounds do not easily heal and recognising our need to forgive and be forgiven takes courage and humility. The readings remind us that our faith response to the difficulties we face as a church must always be rooted in the compassion of God. We are also reminded that teaching and learning will always be part of what we do as a Christian community.

among those who claim to follow Christ.
a reminder to us that reconciliation is not
