Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary Parishes are a community of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in cooperation with the Bishop of Thunder Bay, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God.

"You give them something to eat." The gospel story teaches that Jesus meets the most basic human need, hunger, with generosity and compassion. Today's readings also tell us that God really cares about His people and that there is enough and more than enough for everybody. Studies show that the world today produces enough food grains to provide every human being on the planet with 3,600 calories a day, not counting such foods as tuber crops, vegetables, beans, nuts, fruits, meats, and fish. Over the past twenty five years, food production has exceeded world population growth by about 16%. This means that there is no good reason for any human being in today's world to go hungry. But even in a rich country like U.S.A., one child out of five grows up in poverty, three million people are homeless and 4000 unborn babies are aborted every day. "The problem in feeding the world's hungry population lies with our political lack of will, our economic system biased in favour of the affluent, our militarism, and our tendency to blame the victims of social tragedies such as famine. We all share responsibility for the fact that populations are undernourished. Therefore, it is necessary to arouse a sense of responsibility in individuals, especially among those more blessed with this world's goods." (Pope John XXIII, Mater et Magistra (1961) 157-58).

FIRST FRIDAY: August 03, 18; Holy Hours of Adoration and Exposition of the Blessed sacrament following from 5 to 7 p.m. Adoration finish with the Mass. Welcome!

I heard about a little boy who got into a heated argument with his sister about who was going to get the last biscuit (cookie, brownie), and his mother overheard this discussion and came in to try to resolve the fuss. Her two children, both extremely upset, each wanted that last brownie. So sensing the opportunity to teach a deeper spiritual truth, the mother looked at her children and asked that very relevant question..."What would Jesus do?"

Well, that little boy immediately answered, "That's easy. Jesus would just break that brownie and make 5,000 more!"

Thank you for your generosity.

Grandparents are a treasure in the family. Please, take care of your grandparents: love them and let them talk to your children!

God wants us to call Him Father, with the trust of children who abandon themselves in the arms of the One who gave them life.

Jesus invites us to build the civilization of love together in the situations we are called to live every day.

Try reading the Gospel for at least five minutes every day. You will see how it changes your life.

Prayer is never in vain: it always brings forth something new that, sooner or later, bears fruit.

May the Virgin Mary, Mother and Queen of Carmel, accompany you on your daily journey towards the Mountain of God.

UPDATING OUR CENSUS: If you are new to our parish or have moved, please contact the office to update your information.

Prayer Reflection

Lord, we thank you for leading us to a deeper relationship with you:

- * we joined a prayer group or a religious community;
- * we gave up a relationship that had been harming us for many years;
- * we returned to confession and the Eucharist after a long break.

It was a journey you led us on, as you led the people in the wilderness.

It began when we were impressed by the signs you gave
in curing the sick;
several people we knew had turned to you and found new meaning to their lives.

Lord, we pray for parents who see their children following Jesus into new places.

“One act is required, and that is all. For this one act pulls everything together and keeps everything in order. This one act is to stand with attention in your heart.” Theophane the Recluse

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

We need to commit ourselves to share with others, and to work with God in communicating His compassion. It is too easy to blame God, too easy to blame governments, too easy see these things as other people's problems. They are also our problems.
That is the meaning of the Eucharist we celebrate here today. In other words, as Christians we need to commit ourselves to share what we have with others, and to work with God in communicating his compassion to all. God is a caring Father and He wants our co-operation to be part of His caring for all of us, His children.

That's what the early Christians did, generously sharing what they had with the needy. They were convinced that everything they needed to experience a fulfilling life was already there, in the gifts and talents of the people around them. People of our time have to be encouraged to share, even when they think they have nothing to offer. Whatever we offer through Jesus will have a life-giving effect in those who receive it. We are shown two attitudes in the Gospel story: that of Philip and that of Andrew (John 6:7-9). Philip said, in effect: "The situation is hopeless; nothing can be done." But Andrew's attitude was: "I'll see what I can do; and I will trust Jesus to do the rest."
Let us have Andrew's attitude.
