Trials Lead to God's Glory. We must undergo many trials if we are to enter the kingdom of God. The journey of the Church and our own personal journey as Christians are not always easy; they meet with difficulties and trials. To follow the Lord, to let his Spirit transform the shadowy parts of our lives, our ungodly ways of acting and cleanse us of our sins, I s to set or on a path with man obstacles, both in the world around us but also within us, in the heart. But difficulties and trials are part of the path that leads to God's glory, just as they were for Jesus who was glorified on the cross; we will always encounter them in life! Do not be discouraged! We have the power of the Holy Spirit to overcome these trials!

VISIT TO THE SICK: If you or someone you know would like to receive Holy Communion at home please call 889-0482. REMEMBER IN YOUR SICK.

All these ideas come together in what we say about the for-mal act of becoming disciples: baptism. • Baptism is about following Jesus by joining him in death and resurrection. • Baptism is about joining the community and declaring that we wish to belong to it. • Baptism is about becoming daughters and sons of the Father and praying that his 'will be done on earth as it is in heaven. 'Are we ready now to declare that we wish to renew our baptismal ?

When Jesus told his disciples that he was going to Jerusalem and would suffer grievously there, and be put to death and then rise again, they must have been confused and distressed. Peter had been appointed the rock on which Jesus would build his Church. Now he was hearing that Jesus was going to be put to death.

Impetuous as ever, Peter remonstrated with Jesus, saying that this could not be true. Jesus was the Christ, the Son of the living God — Peter had acknowledged this earlier and Christ had confirmed it, pointing out that it was God who had inspired this knowledge in Peter. So how could the Son of God be about to suffer and die? The faith that had led to Peter's insights about Jesus being the Messiah had now deserted him. In turn, Jesus' response to Peter's hostile reaction to his future suffering was stern, unlike his warm words when Peter had affirmed his belief that Jesus was the Son of God. He castigated Peter: 'Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle in my path, because the way you think is not God's way but man's' (Mt 16:23).

Jesus then described the essential condition of being one of his followers, and this condition would apply to Peter, the first pope, just as much as to the humblest disciple: 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me' (Mt 16:24).

For the disciples, this teaching must have seemed incomprehensible. Even today, many people resist the idea of having to embrace suffering. Yet dealing with suffering is at the root of the Christian life. The willingness to appreciate the transformative value of suffering is a pre-requisite for authentic Christian living.
