Parishes Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary are a communities of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God. "Blessed to live in this beautiful cities, we are Christian in union with Pope Francis and bishop Fred Colli".

In the gospel of Luke today we read of that important moment when Jesus decides to head for Jerusalem. This is presented as a very conscious decision on the part of Jesus who is fully aware that his preaching of the kingdom will bring rejection and death. While Jesus may well be aware of the meaning of the kingdom of God it is clear that his disciples do not grasp its essentials. They want to send down fire and brimstone on the Samaritans who would not receive them. Jesus, we are told rebuked them, and went on his way. There can be no violent coercion with the preaching of the gospel; rather what the gospel demands is whole hearted commitment from those who believe in it. The extent of that commitment is then presented through three different images of people whose hesitation and dithering elicit statements from Jesus about the demands of being a disciple. Clearly these images are not to be taken literally but they are deliberately hard in order to force us into thinking more about where our priorities lie.

Saying “yes” to the Lord means having the courage to embrace life with love as it comes, with all its fragility and smallness, with all its contradictions.

Pray for all Priests and for my Petrine Ministry, that every pastoral action may be sealed with the love that Christ has for every person

Today we celebrate the 175th anniversary of the Pope’s Worldwide Prayer Network. I invite you to pray with me to be united to the Heart of Jesus and to enter together into a mission of compassion for the world.

Jesus looks at us, loves us and awaits us. He is all heart and all mercy. Let us go with confidence to Jesus. He always forgives us

The example of Saint John the Baptist invites us to be a Church that is always at the service of the Word of God; a Church that does not want to draw attention to itself, but to Jesus Christ.

Blessing is not about saying nice words or trite phrases; it is about speaking goodness, speaking with love. The Eucharist is itself a school of blessing.

Bible Study will be every Monday at Roma Dupuis house at 4 Riverview St. from 6:30 - 7:30 p.m. tel. 887-4472. Come out for some great discussion and fellowship. Everyone is welcome!

“THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING US, WE WILL SUPPORT YOU!”

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

We must follow Jesus Christ daily.
Not occasionally,
not frequently,
not regularly,
but daily.

Catholic Women
League in Nipigon.

Today's sayings by Jesus: 'Leave the dead to bury the dead, but you go and preach the kingdom of God' and 'No one, having put his hand to the plough and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God' alert us to this fact of our nature. The kingdom must begin now, and it is difficult, and it is a shock to the system. And, when we look around we can see just how many of us stand and pray 'thy kingdom come' yet at the same time putting our part in that coming off until 'sometime in the future'.

However, once we listen to the prodding's of the Spirit in our hearts, that we should begin this work of building the kingdom, then the Spirit helps and gives us strength to set out on the new road of discipleship. It is this help we receive to take our part in the reconciliation of the world to the Father through Jesus that we often refer to as 'grace'. God invites us to follow and then helps us respond to the invitation: but it is easier to say this than to make this an urgency in our lives. The plough is before us, the challenge is to take hold of it and use it to carve out a new furrow that plays its part in the renewal of the creation.

IF
WHEN?

Coming together week after week we can forget that we have each made a decision to follow Jesus and to make the growth of his kingdom our goal in life. But we get distracted, we lose focus, we get tired, and we even get lost from time to time. Now as we gather around the Lord at his table we ask the Lord to refocus us on what is truly important and to give us the food to sustain us on our pilgrimage of life.

Gospel Notes. This gospel is made up of several elements; hostility, Tolerance, cost of discipleship,
