Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary Parishes are a community of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in cooperation with the Bishop of Thunder Bay, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God.

This Sunday's passage is entirely taken up with one parable. It is in three sections – each one is a story in itself : - an introductory scene ending with the death of both Lazarus and the rich man; – a first dialogue between the rich man and Abraham; – a second dialogue between them. Then it says to us: remember an experience like that and you will know what happens when God comes into people's lives. As in every story, you must find yourself identifying with one of the characters; for example, in this parable there are three characters – the rich man, Lazarus, and Abraham. Lord, there are times when we feel very lonely, ignored by everyone, as if we were at the gate of a very wealthy man, longing to fill ourselves with scraps from his table. But you lead us from there to an experience of security :- a moment of deep prayer; – we feel loved by our family; – we find ourselves in a group which shares our values. We feel as if we had been gathered into the bosom of our ancestors, safe from all those who would send us here and there for their own purposes, as safe as if a great gulf had been fixed between us to stop anyone who wanted to from crossing from our side to theirs, and to stop anyone crossing from their side to ours. Thank you, Lord.

The Holy Spirit gives us the words to say. Who is the real driving force of evangelization in our lives and in the Church? Paul VI wrote clearly: "It is the Holy Spirit who today, just as at the beginning of the church, acts in every evangelizer who allows himself to be possessed and led by him. The Holy Spirit places on his lips the words which he could not find by himself, and at the same time, the Holy Spirit predisposes the soul of the hearer to be open and receptive to the Good News and to the kingdom being proclaimed." To evangelize, therefore, it is necessary to open ourselves once again to the horizon of God's Spirit, without being afraid of what he asks us or of where he leads us. Let us entrust ourselves to him! He will enable us to live out and bear witness to our faith, and will illuminate the heart of those we meet.

Come visit us!! Clothing donations always needed.

Let us learn to call people by their name, as the Lord does with us, and to give up using adjectives.

What parable would make a man with three doctoral degrees (one in medicine, one in theology, one in philosophy) leave civilization with all of its culture and amenities and depart for the jungles of darkest Africa? What parable could induce a man, who was recognized as one of the best concert organists in all of Europe, go to a place where there were no organs to play. What parable would so intensely motivate a man that he would give up a teaching position in Vienna, Austria to go and deal with people who were so deprived that they were still living in the superstitions of the dark ages for all practical purposes. The man who I am talking about, of course, is Dr. Albert Schweitzer. And the single parable that so radically altered his life, according to him, was our text for this morning. It was the parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus. The Rich Man and Lazarus were neighbours, you know. They saw each other every day. Oh, not socially you understand, but there was contact. Every day the Rich Man saw this beggar at his front gate. Who were these men? We shall call the Rich Man Dives [pronounced 'Dive-ees': it's Latin for "Rich Man" as he has been called for centuries] Dives would have felt very comfortable living in our present time. He was a progressive kind of a guy. He was self-indulgent and this is the age of self-indulgency. The contrasting life-styles of these two men is so obvious that you can't miss it. Dives was a connoisseur, a lover of the arts, one who knows and appreciates fine living, four star restaurants. We are told in vs. 19 that he habitually dressed in purple. Purple was known as the color of royalty because it was the most expensive dye in the ancient world. Only the upper echelon and the high priest could afford it. We are also told that his undergarments were made of fine linen. Linen, the lifestyle of the rich and famous.

The Bishop's Diocesan Ministry Campaign (Sharing the Challenges).

The Bishop's Campaign for 2019 is now beginning. Parishioners will receive a brochure and donation card in the mail this month. The theme for 2019 is 'TOGETHER ON THE ROAD'. Like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, we walk together and share our journey with Christ who draws near to us. Like the disciples on the road, let us open our hearts to recognize Jesus in our encounters along the road. St Hilary Parish goal is $ 4, 000.00 and Annunciation Blessed Virgin Mary Parish goal is $8,000.00. The campaign will run until December 31, 2019.

Please be generous in supporting the Bishop's Diocesan Ministry Campaign.
