Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary Parishes are a community of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in cooperation with the Bishop of Thunder Bay, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God.

This Sunday's passage tells the story of Jesus' meeting with Zacchaeus. It is a very touching story, full of character, so deep that we are always finding new things in it, treasures we had not noticed before. God however did not write the story for us to admire St Luke's extraordinary artistry as a storyteller, but so that we could recognise ourselves in it and discover how he has been and continues to be at work in the world.

There are three characters in the story: Zacchaeus, Jesus, and the complainers. Each of these is a universal symbol; all people and all communities have lived the three stories at one time or another. In your meditation then, you are free to identify with any of them – though not at the same time.

Zacchaeus is the symbol of those who experience that “salvation has come to their house.” The word “house” invites us to recognise that it “comes” to both individuals and communities.

“Salvation” is a word we Christians use frequently but it has become very vague. This is not a happy state of affairs; it means that we have no practical way of evaluating whether we are “saved” or not, and so we can easily deceive ourselves. The Pharisee in last Sunday's gospel thought he was saved, but was not, and we must be “on our guard” against falling into the same error. The story of Zacchaeus tells us – as always, speaking to our experience – “this is what happens when salvation comes to a house.”

We know from our faith that final and complete “salvation” will “come to our house” only at the end of time. In the course of our lives what we have are temporary and partial experiences of salvation. These are very significant, however, since they – give us a glimpse of what the final experience will be like (Jesus' teaching based on experience, as always);

– are a pledge that we will experience it

Every third Sunday of the month will be a family mass. All functions will be fulfilled by children during Mass. After Mass, we invite you for a coffee. Welcome

The motivation of Mission. When I was studying theology, I wrote to the (Superior) General (of the Jesuits), who was Fr. Arrupe asking him to dispatch me, to send me to Japan or to some other place. However, he thought about it at length and said to me, with great kindness, "But you have had a lug disease, which is ot very good for such demanding work," so I stayed in Buenos Aires Fr. Arrupe was so kind because he did not say, "But you are not holy enough to become and missionary" - he was kind; he ws charitable. It was the dimension of mission that gave me such great determination to be a Jesuit: to go out, to go to the missions and proclaim Jesus Christ. I believe this is a feature specific: to our spirituality; to go out, to go out to always proclaim Jesus Christ, and to never stay somehow closed in our structures, which are so often transient. This is what motivated me.

The first act of Jesus is to cut through all the divisions and offer welcome and acceptance to this son of Abraham. Jesus then welcomes Zacchaeus back, not

KC meeting November 3rd at 3 pm in Nipigon—ABVM Parish

If you expect
RESPECT from others, show it first to yourself. You can't expect from others what you don't give to YOURSELF.

Henri Estep

This new table fellowship is, for Jesus, the coming kingdom of God: in the new mutual acceptance of his table, the transgressions of Israel become past events, a new way of living is begun, and the Father's home – salvation – is foreshadowed. Zacchaeus can rejoice that the new life of the kingdom had begun and he has been given a place in its banquet, so he too can begin to live life in the new way that is appropriate in the age of the Christ. Jesus' welcome and acceptance is both the good news and the new life. It is sacramental – but not in terms of the Sacrament of Reconciliation – because sharing in his table both establishes the new covenant and anticipates the life to come; and it is in terms of that sacramentality of the Lord's table fellowship that we gather for the Eucharist. If there is to be a practical challenge at the end of the homily it might go like this: Is our table fellowship today, here, one which breaks down the barriers and divisions that prevent us acting as the New People? Is our gathering one which can be seen as modeling the welcome of the kingdom? Is our community one with the right attitude to wealth and the care of the poor?

The Bishop's Diocesan Ministry Campaign (Sharing the Challenges).

The Bishop's Campaign for 2019 is now beginning. Parishioners will receive a brochure and donation card in the mail this month. The theme for 2019 is 'TOGETHER ON THE ROAD'. Like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, we walk together and share our journey with Christ who draws near to us. Like the disciples on the road, let us open our hearts to recognize Jesus in our encounters along the road. St Hilary Parish goal is $ 4,000.00 - Year to date of Bishop's campaign is $1,250.00. and Annunciation Blessed Virgin Mary Parish goal is $8,000.00; Year to date of Bishop's campaign is $3,800.00. The campaign will run until December 31, 2019.

Please be generous in supporting the Bishop's Diocesan Ministry Campaign.
