Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary Parishes are a community of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in cooperation with the Bishop of Thunder Bay, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God.

The gospel passage for this Sunday is challenging for us who practice the lectio divina method of reading the Bible text in dialogue with personal experience. From the outset there are three problems we must deal with if the passage is to speak to our experience as it is intended to.

a) The general theme of the passage is resurrection from the dead, something we believe in faith but have not experienced. We must therefore take the same approach as we did with “salvation” in last week’s passage; we start with partial and temporary “resurrections” we have experienced and allow them to become glimpses of the final and complete resurrection at the end of time. “Dying” will then refer to times when our world – or that of others – collapsed, and “resurrection” to times when we (or they) experienced new life in the wake of failure.

b) The passage refers to the Leviticus law in Deuteronomy 25:5, which is based on an understanding of marriage that is very different from ours. We Christians don’t see marriage in those terms at all. Our meditation will have to be very creative therefore, and we will probably find it impossible to use the word “marry” in praying the passage.

c) Some of the sayings in the passage are vague: “children of this world,” “children of the resurrection,” “they are like the angels,” “sons of God,” “to him all are alive.” In each case we must let the Word come alive by interpreting it in the light of our experience.

Through meditation, then, we will be led

- to celebrate “children of the resurrection,” including ourselves when we are at our best (thanksgiving),
- repent of our lack of faith in the resurrection, as individuals and as a Church (humility),
- pray that faith in the resurrection will triumph in us, in the Church and in the world (petition).

Every third Sunday of the month will be a family mass. All functions will be fulfilled by children during Mass. After Mass, we invite you for a coffee. Welcome

The scandal of Poverty. The times speak to us of such great poverty throughout the world, and this is a scandal. The poverty of the world is a scandal. In a world where there is such great wealth, so many resources for giving food to everyone, it is impossible to understand how there could be so many hungry children, so many children without education, so many poor people! Poverty today is a cry. We must all think about whether we can become a little poorer. This is something we must all do. How can I become a little poorer, to be more like Jesus, who was the poor Teacher?

We think of the great men and women of our time who give themselves to noble causes such as non-violence, harmony between religions, liberation of oppressed people, equality for women. Often they are not praised, are condemned even, but continue to live fulfilled and productive lives. They are "children of the resurrection," they "cannot die," they are "sons and daughters of God."

We think too of "children of the resurrection" who give themselves to the service of others:

- parents who walk with children who are mentally challenged
- friends who continue to care for delinquents
- political leaders who renounce power rather than compromise principles.

They often do not see tangible results, their sacrifices seem useless and "die". But they maintain their dignity, their sense of self worth, their sense of humour even - they "cannot die". If we ask them, "Who are you?" they will answer like Jesus, "I am a son or daughter of God." Like Jesus they teach us to understand what it means to be "the same as the angels."

The Bishop's Diocesan Ministry Campaign (Sharing the Challenges).

The Bishop's Campaign for 2019 is now beginning. Parishioners will receive a brochure and donation card in the mail this month. The theme for 2019 is 'TOGETHER ON THE ROAD'. Like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, we walk together and share our journey with Christ who draws near to us. Like the disciples on the road, let us open our hearts to recognize Jesus in our encounters along the road. St Hilary Parish goal is $ 4,000.00 - Year to date of Bishop's campaign is $1,250.00. and Annunciation Blessed Virgin Mary Parish goal is $8,000.00; Year to date of Bishop's campaign is $3,950.00. The campaign will run until December 31, 2019.

Please be generous in supporting the Bishop's Diocesan Ministry Campaign.
