Parishes Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary are a communities of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God. "Blessed to live in this beautiful cities, we are Christian in union with Pope Francis and bishop Fred Colii".

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

One of the images applied to God in the Old Testament is that he is the shepherd of his people: The Lord is my shepherd there is nothing I shall want. And, he will send a new shepherd to Israel who will gather all those who have been scattered — which is seen as a result of sin — into one flock. We Christians believe that Christ is our shepherd, leading us to the fullness of life. We may find this language of ‘sheep’ and ‘shepherds’ strange, but beneath the imagery is our belief that God is gentle, caring and just.

The passage develops three themes:

- the sheep obey not because of any external compulsion, but because they experience that they belong to the shepherd and are known by him;
- the shepherd is perfectly secure in the loyalty of the sheep. Good shepherds don’t have to wonder, “Am I loved?” or “Are the sheep loyal to me?” they can therefore set about the work of leadership in freedom. Secure in their role, they can be creative, try new things, pose new challenges.
- we see that the security of good shepherds is rooted in their union with God.

Loving God Father, as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you watch over your Church. Bless these women, that they may be strengthened as Christian mothers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honour them always with a spirit of profound respect.

Today we pray for every mother, that their hearts be filled with God’s joy and peace. We pray they are blessed with happiness as they reflect on the memories of their children. We pray that this Mother’s Day will be a celebration of the sacrifices she made and the love she shared throughout the years. Motherhood is more than a stage; it’s a lifelong calling from God.

With it He gives us hearts that love deeply, hands that serve tirelessly, and vision to see His blossoming image in the precious ones entrusted to our care.

Easter celebrates the joy and glory of the risen Lord Jesus. It acknowledges that he is indeed the Good Shepherd who lays down his life for his sheep. He is completely faithful to his heavenly Father’s will. Yet submitting to it had very serious implications for him. Jesus loved sinners so much that he suffered and died for them. We need to realise that we are among those sinners and that we contributed to Jesus’ suffering.

This is the time of mercy; this is the time of the Lord's compassion. Let us open our hearts so that He may come to us. Today we ask for the grace to be docile to the voice of the Lord and for a heart open to the Lord; for the grace not to be afraid to do great things and the sensitivity to pay attention to the small things. If we live like children of God and we let ourselves be guided by the Holy Spirit, we do good to all creation as well. Virgin of the Holy Rosary, help us to be of one heart and one soul, a holy people journeying toward our Heavenly home Faith must lead us believers to see other persons as our brothers and sisters that we need to support and love. May each of us, wherever we may be, in all that we do, be able to say: "Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

Prayer Reflection

“If you have come to help me you are wasting your time. But if you have come because your liberation is bound up with mine, then let us work together.” Lord, we pray for those who work in community development.

They often find that they cannot motivate people or get them to change their ways, and they think that what people need is to take courses or develop new skills.

But Jesus taught us the secret of being shepherds: if people don't feel that they belong to us they will not hear our voice, and unless they get the feeling that we know them they won't follow us.

Lord we thank you for deep relationships:

- a spouse, an intimate friend, a leader to whom we entrusted ourselves, a priest who ministered to us. We remember how the very first time we met we knew that we belonged to them, and recognized their voice; we felt that they knew us through and through, and spontaneously we followed them. Lord, there are people in our country who are always talked down to because they are considered uneducated or unintelligent. We pray that at least in our Church communities they may know that they belong, that leaders know them and accept them for who they are.

Love changes — we look back and see how the people we loved make the difference. Life is too short to look love in the face and say no. ‘We are molded and remolded by those who have loved us, and though their love may pass, we are nevertheless their work’ (F Mauriac). The second reading today is hard to beat! We see it in action when we look at the life of Jesus.

Jesus whose heart is wide enough to
