A Prayer in Time of Corona-Virus

Almighty and All-loving God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we pray to you through Christ the Healer for those who suffer from the Corona-virus Covid-19 in Ireland and across the world.

We pray too for all who reach out to those who mourn the loss of each and every person who has died as a result of contracting the disease.

Give wisdom to policymakers, skill to healthcare professionals and researchers, comfort to everyone in distress and a sense of calm to us all in these days of uncertainty and distress. This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord who showed compassion to the outcast, acceptance to the rejected and love to those to whom no love was shown. Amen.

Archbishop Michael Jackson

Slow down, it's COVID Time

This is the time to be slow, Lie low to the wall Until the bitter weather passes.

Try, as best you can, not to let

The wire brush of doubt

Scrape from your heart

All sense of yourself And your hesitant light.

If you remain generous, Time will come good; And you will find your feet

Again on fresh pastures of promise,

Where the air will be kind

And blushed with beginning.

(John O'Donohue)

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You have already come, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Every third Sunday of the month will be a family mass. All functions will be fulfilled by children during Mass. After Mass, we invite you for a coffee. Welcome

THE RESURRECTION OPENS US TO HOPE. The death and resurrection of Jesus are the heart of our hope. The apostle (Paul) said, "If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins."(1 Corinthians 15-17). Unfortunately, efforts have often been made to blur faith in the resurrection of Jesus and doubts have crept in, even among believers. It is a little like that "rosewater" faith, as we say; it is not a strong faith. And this is due to superficiality and sometimes to indifference, busy as we are with a thousand things considered more important than faith. Or because we have a view of life that is solely horizontal. However, it is the resurrection itself that opens us to greater hope, for it opens our lives and the life of the world to the eternal future of God, to full happiness, to the certainty that evil, sin, and death maybe overcome.

SUNDAY MASS:
*Our time of prayer
As a community of faith!*

Catholics around the world joined Pope Francis in praying the rosary on Thursday night to ask God to end the coronavirus pandemic, which has killed more people in Italy than anywhere else. Italy's bishops asked the country's Catholics to say the rosary in their homes starting at 9 p.m. and to put a lighted candle in their windows in a sign of national unity.

The initiative spread on social media after it was announced earlier this week and many Catholics around the world joined in.

Francis, who is secluded in the Vatican and holding his general audiences over the internet instead of before crowds in St. Peter's Square, broadcast a video message over television as the praying began. "In this unprecedented situation, when everything seems to be vacillating, let us help each other remain steady in what really matters," he said.

Italy's death toll from the coronavirus overtook that of China, where the virus first emerged, as hospitals said they were being overwhelmed and the government prepared to prolong emergency lockdown measures. A total of 427 deaths were registered in Italy over the past 24 hours, bringing the nationwide tally to 3,405 since the outbreak surfaced on Feb. 21. China has recorded 3,245 deaths since early January.

Last Sunday, Francis ventured into a deserted Rome to pray at two shrines for the end of the coronavirus outbreak.

The all-important question for us at Eastertide is: Do we sincerely believe, like Martha, that Jesus Christ is the Resurrection and the Life? In other words, do we accept that he is raised from the dead and that he is the Lord of life? How can we have the sure and certain hope that was characteristic of her faith? Martha provides an inspiring example of Easter faith. Despite her obvious grief at the death of Lazarus, she put her faith completely in Christ. We are challenged to do the same. How much is our faith like Martha's faith? Let our prayer today be: Lord, our God, strengthen our faith in Jesus Christ, the Resurrection and the Life. May we learn from Martha's example so that the message of Easter may change our lives and lead us to eternal life. For meditation I am the resurrection. If anyone believes in me, even though he dies he will live, and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. (Jn 11:25-26).
