Parishes Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary are a communities of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God. "Blessed to live in this beautiful cities, we are Christian in union with Pope Francis and bishop Fred Colli".

"There is a very old and much-repeated story about St. Augustine, one of the intellectual giants of the Church. He was walking by the seashore one day, attempting to conceive of an intelligible explanation for the mystery of the Trinity. As he walked along, he saw a small boy on the beach, pouring seawater from a shell into a small hole in the sand. "What are you doing, my child?" asked Augustine. "I am trying to empty the sea into this hole," the boy answered with an innocent smile. "But that is impossible, my dear child," said Augustine. The boy stood up, looked straight into the eyes of Augustine and replied, "What you are trying to do - comprehend the immensity of God with your small head - is even more impossible." Then he vanished. The child was an angel sent by God to teach Augustine a lesson. Later, Augustine wrote: "You see the Trinity if you see love." According to him, the Father is the lover, the Son is the loved one and the Holy Spirit is the personification of the very act of loving. This means that we can understand something of the Mystery of the Holy Trinity more readily with the heart than with our feeble mind. Evagrius of Pontus, a Greek monk of the 4th century who came from what is now Turkey in Asia and later lived out his vocation in Egypt, said: "God cannot be grasped by the mind. If God could be grasped, God would not be God."

Holy Spirit, our harmony, You who make us one body, infuse your peace in the Church and in the world.

The poor save us because they enable us to encounter the face of Jesus Christ.

Holy Spirit, make us artisans of harmony, sowers of good, apostles of hope.

As adults we must not rob children of their capacity to dream.

Let us seek to promote an environment of hope, where their dreams may grow and be shared: A shared dream opens the path towards a new way of life.

May you be witnesses of freedom and mercy, allowing fraternity and dialogue to prevail over divisions.

Bible Study will be every Monday at Roma Dupuis house at 4 Riverview St. from 6:30 - 7:30 p.m. tel. 887-4472. Come out for some great discussion and fellowship. Everyone is welcome!

“THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING US, WE WILL SUPPORT YOU!”

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

WELCOME TO God's
FAMILY

Trinitarian Stewardship:
God the Father, creator and giver of who we are and all that we possess; God the Son, our redeemer, and supreme teacher of Christian Stewardship; God the Spirit, the activator, the Holy Spirit guiding how we are to use our gifts. The bottom line is that one day we will all be held accountable for how we shared the gifts we were given; how we responded to what we were taught; and, how we acted when inspired. When that day comes, we pray that through God's grace we will hear the words, "Well done good and faithful steward!"

Importance in Christian life: 1) All prayers in the Church begin in the Name of the Holy Trinity and end glorifying the Trinity.

2) All Sacraments are administered (we are baptized, confirmed, anointed, our sins are forgiven and our marriage blessed and our Bishops, priests and deacons ordained) in the name of the Holy Trinity.

3) We bless ourselves, and the priest blesses us, in the name of the Holy Trinity.

Biblical proofs: There are only vague and hidden references to the Trinity in the Old Testament. But the New Testament gives clear teachings on the Holy Trinity.

This feast is unique in that the focus of our celebration is not an aspect of the history of salvation, but reflection on the nature of God as we believe it has been revealed to us as Christians. Thus every Sunday is the Sunday of the Trinity, every feast, every action has a Trinitarian dimension, and should any prayer be uttered or homily preached which does not include that core of faith — at least tacitly with a conclusion such as 'through Christ our Lord' — then we are apostates, have ceased to be Christians and become some sort of vague deists or Unitarians who value the 'message of Jesus'. At the outset of the celebration it is worth reflecting that today's focus is the very essence of Christian identity. We have just stated that we are acting 'In the name of the Father...' and that is a declaration of our basic faith, not just an opening formula. Our aim in today's liturgy should be to become more sensitive to the Trinitarian cues that run right through our religion.
