KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.
REFLECTION: REFLECTION

God our Father, we thank you for Jesus and people like him who come down and stop at a piece of level ground, where we and a great crowd of people are gathered looking for a word of compassion and to be cured of our diseases. We thank you for those who re-assure us that we are not bad, that the kingdom of God is in our hands, and even though right now we feel hunger, and weep bitter tears, we can be confident of the future. We thank you for our ancestors in this country, grandparents, mothers and fathers, who taught us how to rejoice and dance for joy even when people look down on us, drive us out, abuse us, denounce our names as criminals. Send the same Spirit of Wisdom on the many people in our society who are very rich, but that is all the consolation they have, who seem to have their fill but are very hungry, who outwardly are laughing but when you get to know them are mourning and weeping, who are well spoken of by the world but are false prophets in fact.

In every relationship, in every set of circumstances, the faithful disciple of Jesus seeks to break the cycle of hatred and distrust by taking that often-formidable first step to love, to seek reconciliation above all else. Seeing beyond hatreds and differences, borders and boundaries, flags and uniforms, languages and cultures, suspicions and unsettled scores is the cutting edge of the Gospel. The relationship we seek with God we must first seek with one another. Pray for the strength to forgive. At every Mass we pray the “Our Father,” asking God to forgive us as we forgive others. Our challenge is to overcome our natural inclination to hate. To meet that challenge we need to ask God for the strength to forgive each other. Each of us needs to ask: do I have anyone in my life I call an enemy? However, we must forgive, because only forgiveness truly heals us. If we remember how God has forgiven us, it will help us forgive others.

Annunciation BVM and St. Hilary Parishes are a community of Catholics under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through worship, service and fellowship, in cooperation with the Bishop of Thunder Bay, in order to bring forth the values of the Kingdom of God.

Jesus said to his disciples: To you who hear I say, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, and from the person who takes your cloak, do not withhold even your tunic. Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back. "Love your enemies," Jesus says. "Do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you." Can we really love our enemies? If not, why did Jesus lay on us this impossible demand? If the teaching troubles you, fear not, you are not the first to back away from this bit of divine fire...

Today's theme – LOVE – is both attractive and challenging. In a world characterized by aggressiveness and violence, the concept of God-like love may seem unrealistic and incapable of solving the problems of justice, stability, and order. Other solutions may appear to be more "effective." But, in the long run, the real solution can be found only in a love that is patterned after God's love for us, for "God knows best" Such a love is the only way to go beyond the present deficiencies and injustices, and build the Kingdom established by Christ. This is the "new order" characterized by solidarity, compassion, forgiveness, and self-giving – all "family names" of the sublime reality we call "LOVE."
